Unit4 Industry Mesh

Delivering integration across business-critical applications

Unit4 Industry Mesh is a specifically developed bundle of industry-fit data flows to commonly used apps available turnkey. It delivers a modern, enterprise-wide service that connects your finance, project and HR teams with always up-to-date information that is right for them.

Mid-market organizations need the agility of cloud and SaaS solutions to adapt to market disruption. All are faced with managing a growing portfolio of cloud apps, but find themselves constrained by endless integration challenges and the inability to free up core data and cope with rapid change.

Unlike typical industry solutions that simply offer templated best practices or an integration toolkit that leaves the burden of development with the customer, Unit4 Industry Mesh does the work for you, delivering the turnkey integrations as a service.

With a dedicated focus on the needs of service-centric industries, the Unit4 Industry Mesh builds upon the ERPx platform as well as over 40 years of industry knowledge to help teams become even faster and more resilient.

According to Unit4 research, by optimizing their integrations customers of the Unit4 Industry Mesh could realize productivity savings of up to $1.2M/€1.0m per year.[1]
